Imagination. "Some folks," says a New York hotel clerk, "are so easily 'hornswoggled.' Oh, that's Greek, I guess, and means that you are fooled. Now, for instance, a man in a restaurant the other day ordered broiled mackerel, and he ate it with great relish, loudly declaring that broiling is the only way to cook mackerel. But was his mackerel broiled? No much. It is too much trouble to broil a fish, so the cook put it in a pan and fried it, and then made broiled lines across it with a red-hot poker kept in readiness for such emergencies. So the man was 'hornswoggled,' but, as he didn't know it, he was as happy as though he had really eaten broiled mackerel. I tell you, imagination is three-fourths of life."
